The Catholic View For Women Season 10

With Janet Morana, Teresa Tomeo and Elena Rodriguez
(Started airing September 2, 2018)

Sundays at 11:30 p.m. ET

Episode 1: Beyond Sunday: Becoming a 24/7 Catholic (Pt. 1). Most Rev. Allen Vigneron, Archbishop of Detroit, talks about the importance of starting with that personal encounter with Christ.

Episode 2: Beyond Sunday: Becoming a 24/7 Catholic (Pt. 2). The co-hosts discuss how important it is to be truly joyful and what happens when we focus only on the negative. Guest: Al Kresta, CEO of Ave Maria Communications.

Episode 3: Catholic Women's Voices Must be Heard in the Elections. Catholic and Christian women must let their voices be heard in the public square and in the voting booth!

Episode 4: Men, Women and the #MeToo Campaign: A Catholic Perspective. Explore a new study program for Catholic men and how the Church's teaching offers the answer to cultural issues.

Guest: Bill Donaghy, The Theology of the Body Institute and Co-Author of Rise, 30 Day Challenge for Men.

Episode 5: The Response to Our Violent Culture! This episode explores what the Church says about the fallout of the culture of death, the connection between media violence and aggressive behavior in young people, and the impact of rampant pornography. Guest: KY Gov. Matt Bevin

Episode 6: Garbage In Garbage Out: The Shocking Impact of Media on You and Your Family. Find solutions to the negative impact that violence from Hollywood and the Television Industry is having on our children.

Episode 7: How to Push Back Against the Toxic Culture. This episode encourages Catholics to be not afraid and push back against the culture with powerful clips from Jim Caveziel's FOCUS speech in January of 2018.

Episode 8: Letters from Our Leaders: Encouraging Catholics to Listen to Voices of Our Shepherds. This episode reviews some of the letters and documents from Church leaders that teach us how to put our faith into practice.

Episode 9: Me, Myself and I, Or Father, Son and Holy Spirit! Take a look at old heresies with some modern day examples, offering solutions and self-examination in light of these heresies.

Episode 10: Inside the Atheist Mind. Atheism and other anti-Christian movements have resulted in Catholics and other Christians being marginalized and much worse. Guest: Anthony DeStefano, Author of Inside the Atheist Mind.

Episode 11: Let the Saints Come Marching In. Take a closer look at the amazing life of Pope Paul VI, being canonized this year, as well as how one becomes a saint and what it means to have the saints "intercede" for us.

Episode 12: Finding Good Catholic Doctors. Hear about cultural attacks on the medical community especially in the area of Conscience Rights. Guest: Dr. Barbara Golder, Editor in Chief Linacre Quarterly

Episode 13: Up Close and Personal: Letters from Our Viewers. The Co-Hosts will answer some of the most frequently asked questions from the viewers.
